Subject: Recommendation letter in favor of S&S International Exhibits, LLC

We are giving this recommendation letter in good faith to our business partner S&S International Exhibits, LLC, as a result of their excellent performance and support in providing booth decoration and show site supervision services to our company, in every exhibition we participated worldwide (USA, China, Japan, Korea).

Over the years, mutual satisfaction and high commitment have led to a successful partnership, which proved to be beneficial for our company and for the results achieved. Superior quality of structures and decoration, completeness of provided services (from form submission to warehouse to equipment rental, etc.), availability on-site during each exhibition to cover any additional request.

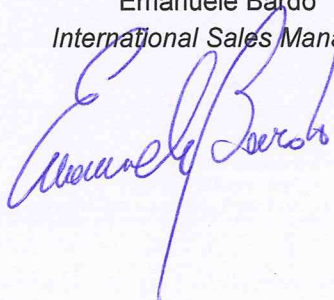

Given their proven reliability, trustworthiness and professionalism we are happy to recommend S&S International Exhibits as experts in their field and as solid suppliers of professional services.

Yours faithfully
